APPENDIX – FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE TIMING OF INVOICING ETC

SECTION	COMMENT
General	All amounts stated are in Norwegian kroner and are stated exclusive of value-added tax. Value-added tax is payable in addition to the stipulated amounts if the service in question provided by Oslo Børs is subject to value-added tax.
1.1	For the ordinary listing process, NOK 101,600 of the introduction fee is incurred upon submission of the application for admission to trading, whether or not the company is admitted to trading. This amount is deducted from the introduction fee payable if admission to trading takes place. For the flexible listing process, NOK 203,100 of the introduction fee is incurred upon submission of the pre-listing report, regardless of whether or not the listing process is completed. This amount is deducted from the introduction fee payable if admission to trading takes place. For the fast-track process, NOK 1,411,000 is incurred when Oslo Børs confirms that the company is suitable for a fast-track process. The amount is incurred regardless of whether or not the company is subsequently admitted to trading. A further NOK 1,411,000 is incurred on the first day of admission to trading, regardless of the company's market capitalization.
1.2	In case of increases in share capital, an increase in the annual listing fee will be invoiced. The annual fee is non-refundable, with the exception of issuers who submit an application for removal from trading in one year and are then removed from trading in the first quarter of the following year. In such cases, the annual fee will be refunded for the second part of the year in which the issuer is delisted.
1.4	Admission to trading of shares in respect of pre-issue allotment rights, cf. Rule Book Part II section 2.1.6.2: half the amount is incurred following the pre-admission meeting and the remaining amount upon admission to trading.
2.1	The fee becomes payable when the report is submitted to Oslo Børs for inspection, even if the inspection subsequently is not, or cannot be, completed.
