Notification Requirements and Notice Periods

Release 4

28 May 2019

INTRODUCTION

The requirements in this document apply to equity sponsors and investment funds sponsors. A sponsor must advise Euronext Dublin of any of the following notifiable events, within the times set out below. These notification requirements will not form part of a public announcement by the Company Announcements Office of Euronext Dublin.

Where notification is required to be made 'immediately', it must be given by telephone, fax or email to equity@euronext.com on the day the sponsor becomes aware of the event and confirmed by letter to be received within two working days. In every other case, the time stated is the time at or within which the written notification must be received by Euronext Dublin, postal or other delays being at the risk of the sponsor. Notification within the time limit by fax or email to equity@euronext.com is acceptable if confirmed by letter received by Euronext Dublin within two working days.

Following the receipt of any notice required, Euronext Dublin may require the sponsor to furnish such additional information as it may consider necessary.

1 A sponsor must notify Euronext Dublin immediately if:

- (a) The sponsor withdraws from sponsorship activities;
- (b) The sponsor ceases to satisfy the sponsor eligibility criteria or any other requirement contained in the publication 'Eligibility Criteria, Application Process and Other Requirements';
- (c) The departure of one or more executive employees (whether on a permanent or temporary basis) results in the sponsor ceasing to satisfy the sponsor eligibility criteria, giving details of when the sponsor will be in a position to correct the situation;
- (d) An emergency occurs outside the control of the sponsor, which makes it impracticable for the sponsor to comply with the Listing Rules and/or the requirements contained in the publication 'Eligibility Criteria, Application Process and Other Requirements';
- (e) The sponsor resigns or is dismissed by a listed company;
- (f) Disciplinary proceedings or a similar action by any regulator or professional body against the sponsor and/or any of its executive employees are initiated;
- (g) A person is appointed by a statutory or other regulatory authority or professional body to investigate the affairs of the sponsor and/or any of its executive employees;
- (h) Any of the sponsor's executive employees are disqualified by a court from acting as director of a company or from acting in a management capacity or conducting the affairs of any company;
- (i) A listed company or applicant denies the sponsor access to documents or information that have been the subject of a reasonable request by the sponsor; and

- (j) There is a change of control of the sponsor, or the sponsor's group carries out any restructuring, which results in a reorganisation of the directors, partners or executive employees involved in providing services as a sponsor.

Note: In each of the above situations, details of any relevant facts or circumstances must be included in the notification.

- 2 A sponsor must notify Euronext Dublin within 7 days of the following events occurring:
  - (a) The employment of an individual to be executively involved in the activities of a sponsor; and
  - (b) The resignation/dismissal of an individual executively involved in the activities of a sponsor.
- 3 A sponsor must notify Euronext Dublin at least 14 days in advance of the following events:
  - (a) Change of sponsor's registered name;
  - (b) Change of any trading name under which the sponsor carries on its business;
  - (c) Change of head office address; and
  - (d) The commencement of an extended period of absence of an executive employee with senior experience, giving details of what arrangements the sponsor has in place to ensure that its responsibilities can be discharged with due skill and care during the executive's absence.
- 4 No later than 20 working days after the start of each calendar year, a sponsor must provide Euronext Dublin with the following:
  - (a) Written confirmation that it continues to satisfy the sponsor eligibility criteria; and
  - (b) An up to date list of executive employees involved in its sponsorship activities.
