SWIFT SR 2016 – Future Mode

Dear Client,

We wish to inform you that as of the value date of 19 September next, Monte Titoli will adopt, in a test environment, the “future mode” for the exchange of SWIFT ISO15022 messages.

Accordingly, the SWIFT interfaces of members that wish to conduct tests must be set to that mode.

The SWIFT ISO15022 format changes that will soon be available on the SWIFT MyStandards portal and that will be released in a test environment (T2/UTEST) as of the value date of 19 September 2016 and into production as of Monday, 21 November 2016 are as follows:
